Internships in P&G GVA for Greek Students

Finance - Internships in Switzerland (Geneva HQ) - 2012/2013 - (m/f)-FIN00002633

Description

Procter & Gamble has its headquarter in Geneva for Europe, Middle East and Africa Regions. The employees coming from 70 different countries represent the diversity of consumers we serve all around the world.

An internship at a P&G site in Europe (10 weeks - 6 months) offers you the opportunity to test your finance knowledge and management abilities in real-life situations and obtain insights into the world of Finance in a fast moving consumer goods company.

Job responsibilities during internship

You will assume responsibility for your project(s), working closely with colleagues from finance and other functions (e.g. Marketing, Sales, and Engineering). At the end of the internship you will be given the opportunity to present the results to senior management.

Typical projects would be:

- Analyzing major competitors to refine business strategies for P&G products
- Exploring alternative manufacturing opportunities
- Assessing the financial impact of a new product initiative

Summary of Job Requirements:

We are looking for

- Strong academic results
- Strong numerical and analytical skills
- Ability to show effective leadership, to solve problems and to set priorities
- Excellent collaboration skills and the ability to work within diverse organizations and teams
- A good command of the English language

How to apply: Through www.pgcareers.com → location: Switzerland → Finance - Internships in Switzerland (Geneva HQ) - 2012/2013 - (m/f)-FIN00002633 → Apply Online